

WILL THIS MAKE WOMEN FORGET THEIR POLITICS

CHICAGO—Every woman, be she a staunch Republican or a dyed-in-the-wool Democrat, is expected to fall for the latest American gown—the Harding campaign gown, which was exhibited by the Fashion Art League, held in September at the Auditorium and Congress hotels, Chicago.

This gown is named for Mrs. Warren G. Harding, wife of the Republican nominee for president of the United States, and was designed by Madam Alla Ripley, president of the league. It is, as its creator says, "An American gown for American women."

The material is all American made, the wool, a brown Tuscarora cloth from American woolen mills and the brown satin from American silk mills.

The gown is made with the long lines that give slenderness to the matronly figure, is cut in Redingote style and worn over a brown satin slip. The neck is slightly low in front, cut square and a collar either of metallic ribbon or white lace may be worn with the gown. The sleeves are long and are made of the brown satin, and the embroidery which adorns the frock is done with silk floss and wooden beads in dull green, copper, dull blue and black.

An All-Day Gown

"This gown," says its creator, "is one that may be worn on the street, at luncheon, the matinee, on the train, at an informal dinner or an afternoon tea and yet allow the wearer to be perfectly gowned." In other words, it's an all-day gown. And to complete it is a jacket coat for winter wear. This jacket is knee length and is embroidered to match the gown in the same beads. It is lined with brown caracul fur and has a small collar of the same fur.

As American women do not go in for extremes, the gown is only nine inches from the floor—a modest length.

LOCAL BRIEFS

State have been advised by Gov. Thomas E. Campbell that he will issue a proclamation the first of the month making Armistice day, Nov. 11, a legal holiday. The notices have been issued that preparations might be made for the ceremonies that will be held on that day. Coming as it does on fair week the local ceremonies, it is understood, will be held at the state fair grounds during the noon hour.

THESE WILL MARRY—Licenses to marry were issued yesterday to Raulo Reyes, 35, and Manuela Papis, 47, both of Mesa; Clyde Rouse, 41, of Chandler, and Charlotte Alf, 35, of Los Angeles; Harry M. Stover, 27, and MANY DANCE STUDENTS—A full enrollment in classes of children, beginners, intermediate and advanced, marks the opening of the season of Edna Paula Revare. An innovation in this year's work will be a special morning class for women for the purpose of body building and reduction, poise, grace, rhythm and art appreciation. In this class only the simpler forms of the dance will be studied and the aim will be the attainment of physical well-being rather than the accomplishment of a particular performance.

LEGION MEETING—There will be a meeting of Frank Luke, Jr., post No. 1, American legion, Wednesday, Oct. 20, at 364 North Seventh avenue at 8 p. m. All members are urged to be present. The Armistice day program will be discussed as well as the reports of various committees that are investigating matters of interest to the legion. The advisability of legion bulletin boards being placed in advantageous places in the downtown district will be taken up. There also will be a report on what took place at the national convention of the American legion.

JOINS MUSICAL COMPANY—Miss Ida Mae Golze, who has been active in musical circles in the last few years, has accepted a position with the Ed Redmond Musical Comedy company as prima donna. All of her friends will be pleased to hear of this, as much interest has been shown in her work in the past, and with her voice and personality they are certain they will hear of her in both the concert and operatic fields in the future. Miss Golze has studied with Mr. Bloom for the past year.

TEMPLE CLUB TO MEET—The Temple club meets at 2:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at 529 West Jefferson street. After a short business meeting there will be a musical and literary program. The aim of the club is the spiritual, moral and intellectual elevation of its members, and through them of the world at large. All ladies who are interested in self-development and the unfoldment of all the faculties in their due order and degree are invited to be present.

INSPECT TROOP B WEDNESDAY—Lieut. Col. Julien R. Gault of the First cavalry, stationed at Douglas, will inspect Troop B, First cavalry, Arizona national guard, at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, October 27, according to information received by Adjutant General Ingalls yesterday. The inspection will be made with a view of receiving federal recognition for the troop.

HERE TO MAKE BIDS—C. P. Griffith of Denver, representing the American Bridge company, was in Phoenix yesterday to submit prices for materials to the state highway department. GIFT FROM THE U. S.—Arizona has been asked to put in its claim for army engineer special magnet hand-blasting machines. Thomas Maddock, state engineer, was advised yesterday by the surplus property office of the bureau of public roads that the government had 1500 machines on hand, and asked to state the number needed in Arizona. Mr. Maddock will make a requisition for 25, which are needed where there is heavy rock work.

WIFE GETS DIVORCE—On the grounds of desertion, Lucy L. Crutchfield, yesterday was granted a decree of divorce from Henry E. Crutchfield by Judge Lyman.

CORRECTS ERROR—United States Game Warden Ernest P. Walker wishes to call the attention of hunters to the fact that the reported interview with Joe V. Prochaska, state game warden, which appeared in The Republican on the morning of October 16, is an error in that it gives the impression that ducks may be killed after sunset, whereas, the open hours during which ducks may be killed are from half an hour before sunrise until sunset, and that no such shooting is permissible after sunset. Sunrise and sunset are taken from the local United States weather bureau tables of sunrise and sunset for this locality.

TO ENTERTAIN VISITORS—Miss Mary Chambliss had truly an inspiration a few days ago when she received a letter from Miss Lura Hawdyshell, an old friend from the east, informing her that herself and Sister Letta and Miss Jessie Harry had all accepted positions to teach in Arizona. Accordingly a week-end visit was made up Friday to meet the young teachers, consisting of Clyde Chambliss, Mayr Chambliss, Leo Chambliss, Osa Holden and Ralph Brown. They go via motor car and will take in Roosevelt lake and many of the grand sights of the eastern part of the state.

EASTERN STR DANCE—The Eastern Star will give a dance Friday evening at Masonic hall at 8 p. m. All members are invited to attend.

AMERICANIZATION MEETING—There will be a meeting of the Phoenix community committee on Americanization on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock in the West precinct court-room at 17 North Second avenue. All who are interested in this important work are invited to attend, and it is hoped there will be a large attendance so that the work for the coming season may be laid out.

This Hot Blast Heater Will Cut Your Coal Bills One-Third

$30.00

With all kinds of fuel selling at the highest prices in history, the stove that will really reduce your coal bills is the one you want in your home. After a careful investigation extending over a period of almost a year, we have found this hot blast heater will heat your home more economically, will give the greatest service with the least attention, and will extract more heat from a given quantity of coal than any other hot blast heater on the market today!

Its scientific construction makes possible the perfect combustion of any fuel—soft coal, black, hard coal, coke, wood, sawdust or anything that can be burned. It is designed so that all the gases and smoke are consumed, throwing off a tremendous heat instead of allowing it to go up the chimney as waste. The most wonderful stove value in the city at tomorrow's special price! Reduce your coal bills—save money tomorrow on this special value.

Combination Range

With this combination range, you can bake and cook with either gas or coal. It has white enamel back splashes, a white enamel panel in the drop oven door and the latest design high closet with a drop door fully nickel plated and enameled. The grates and fire-backs are fully warranted and designed so that you may burn either coal or wood.

OIL HEATERS

Smokeless and odorless, these oil heaters are just the thing for these cold, snappy fall mornings and evenings. Cost just a few cents an hour to operate.

A Guaranteed Heater

This Colonial all cast cottage parlor heater with heavy cast linings and duplex grates for coal and wood is a magnificent and serviceable heater at this special price. It has a large mica door for coal and a wide feed door with a smoke curtain hood. Has large nickel screw draft registers, nickel foot rail and a fancy urn.
